A horse mackerel weighing 600 pounds was caught on Monday off the east beach at Westerly, R. I. The fish was a lively one, eight feet long and five feet in circumference. Capt. Dodge of Block Island landed a 540-pound horse mackerel Saturday, and it brought $18 to him in the market.

POOR OUTLOOK.So Captains Say for a Big Mackerel Catch.*They Do Not Like the Way the Fish Are Acting.

The fleet off the South Shoal lightship now numbers 60 sail and no fish have been taken since last Friday. The skipper are inclined to take a gloomy view of the situation, and say that from now on there is every indication that mackerel will be scarce. They do not like the way the fish are acting in staying to the southward so long and not showing in the Bay of Fundy and only a few small schools appearing on Georges. They openly express the opinion that the catch from now on will not begin to approach that of last season. The fleet now out, as a whole has few fish and some of the vessels which have been out a month have no fish at all.

The fare of sch. Hattie E. Heckman sold to the Gloucester Mackerel Company at $7.50 per barrel.

Capt. Joseph Smith will command sch. Hattie E. Heckman in the mackerel fishery.

The fares of schs. James A. Garfield, Henry M. Stanley and Oliver Wendell Holmes sold to Wm. H. Jordan.

A letter from Skibbereen, Ireland, dated June 20, says mackerel fishing is improving around there, but on no other part of the coast. None will be cured, as prices quoted from this side would leave no margin even if fish were got for nothing. They are quoted at $7. About 800 casks have been cured, but none for the past ten days.

Stocks of Irish mackerel were increased somewhat on June 29 by the arrival on the Germanic of 27 bbls. to a New York house. Prior thereto spot stocks New York amounted to 100 bbls. In addition there are 36 bbls. in Philadelphia. All are held at $10.50 or better per bbl. No other foreign mackerel is on the way, and the selling price ranges from $10 to $11.

Advices from Arichat, C. B., state that there are about 150 bbls. of salt mackerel on that coast, count about 240 to 300 per bbl., netted by fishing vessels on the outside grounds.
